

George K. Michalopoulos Junior Faculty Travel Award Application

April 4-7, 2020 • San Diego, CA

The George K. Michalopoulos Junior Faculty Travel Award is offered to promote the participation of early career investigators in scientific meetings and conferences. The award recognizes the outstanding research being conducted by ASIP Regular and Next-Generation Scientist members who are employed as Junior Faculty at institutions around the world. The awardee is selected by the ASIP Meritorious Awards Committee on the basis of early career productivity and the scientific merit of the submitted abstract. The award stipend is $1,000.

Candidates for the George K. Michalopoulos Junior Faculty Travel Award must:

- Be an ASIP Regular or Next-Generation Scientist Member in good standing at the time of application submission and through the dates of the conference.
- Have completed a professional degree (DO, DVM, MBBS, MD, PhD or equivalent) at least two years and no more than seven (or nine if in clinical training) years prior to submitting the application.
- Submit an abstract to one or more ASIP Topic Category by November 18, 2019.
- The award applicant should be a co-author but does NOT have to be the first author of the abstract and may submit up to 3 abstracts for consideration.
- Register for Experimental Biology 2020 by November 18, 2019.
- Attend the ASIP Business Meeting and Awards Presentations on April 6, 2020. The travel award will be rescinded if the awardee is not present and/or does not verify
